9. Policy Problem Addressed by the Rule

This chapter contains requirements to use the latest copyright of Robert's Rules of Order to conduct business, hold elections, meeting once a year or upon call of the chairperson and antiquated procedures for membership in international association of boards and payment of fees for delegates. The repeal of this chapter removes duplicative and obsolete rules.

10. Summary of the businesses, business sectors, associations representing business, local governmental units, and individuals that may be affected by the proposed rule that were contacted for comments.

This rule was posted for economic comments and none were received.

11. Identify the local governmental units that participated in the development of this EIA.

None

12. Summary of Rule's Economic and Fiscal Impact on Specific Businesses, Business Sectors, Public Utility Rate Payers, Local Governmental Units and the State's Economy as a Whole (Include Implementation and Compliance Costs Expected to be Incurred)

This rule has no economic or fiscal impact on specific businesses, business sectors, public utility rate payers, local governmental units or the state's economy as a whole.

13. Benefits of Implementing the Rule and Alternative(s) to Implementing the Rule

The benefit of the rule is to repeal the chapter which contains duplicative or obsolete provisions. The statutes provide for elections and frequency of meetings. The other provisions are unnecessary or antiquated procedures and do not reflect the operating process for memberships.

14. Long Range Implications of Implementing the Rule

The long range implication is not having rules which are unnecessary.

15. Compare With Approaches Being Used by Federal Government

None

16. Compare With Approaches Being Used by Neighboring States (Illinois, Iowa, Michigan and Minnesota)

ADMINISTRATIVE RULES
Fiscal Estimate & Economic Impact Analysis

Our surrounding states provide for the elections and meetings in statute and not in rule. None of our surrounding states have rules relating to the use of parliamentary procedure. Only Iowa addresses membership in the national organization and that is done by statute and not rule.
