ANALYSIS BY THE DEPARTMENT OF PUBLIC INSTRUCTION

Statute interpreted: s. 115.29 (4), Stats.

Statutory authority: ss. 115.29 (4) (a) and 227.10 (1) and (2m), Stats.

Explanation of agency authority:

The state superintendent is given authority to establish standards regarding GED tests under 115.29 (4) (a), Stats. Specifically, s. 115.29 (4) (a), Stats., provides:

115.29 General powers. The state superintendent may:

(4) High school graduation equivalency.

(a) Grant a declaration of equivalency of high school graduation to an individual if the individual has successfully completed the civics test required under s. 118.33 (1m) (a) and if, in the state superintendent's judgment, the individual has presented satisfactory evidence of having completed a recognized high school course of study or its equivalent. The state superintendent may establish the standards by which high school graduation equivalency is determined. Such standards may consist of evidence of high school courses completed in high schools recognized by the proper authorities as accredited, results of examinations given by or at the request of the state superintendent, successful completion of correspondence study courses given by acceptable correspondence study schools, a general educational development certificate of high school equivalency issued by an agency of the U.S. government, course credits received in schools meeting the approval of the state superintendent, or other standards established by the state superintendent.

Under s. 227.10 (1), Stats., "each agency shall promulgate as a rule each statement of general policy and each interpretation of a statute which it specifically adopts to govern its enforcement or administration of that statute." Further, s. 227.10 (2m), Stats., provides that "no agency may implement or enforce any standard, requirement, or threshold, including as a term or condition of any license issued by the agency, unless that standard, requirement, or threshold is explicitly required or explicitly permitted by statute or by a rule that has been promulgated in accordance with this subchapter." As such, a rule is required to implement and establish standards regarding GED tests under 115.29 (4) (a), Stats.
